NOTIFICATION OF VIOLATIONS: The Recreation Club Board shall be notified of violations and shall prepare a written notice within 30 days of an infraction, describing the violations, noting all parties involved and specifying the penalty established. This notice shall be mailed to the Member and a copy of the notice shall be placed in the Member's file.

FINEABLE VIOLATIONS

GUEST RULE: If any Member invited a non-member that lives in Coyote Lakes to the Clubhouse, the following shall take place:

- a) A written notice specifying the abuse will be sent to the violator. A copy will be kept in the Recreation Club files, specifying the violation. The fine will be $100.00.
- b) The violator has 30 days to pay the fine or appeal the violation to the Board in writing.
- c) If failing to pay or appeal after 30 days, all privileges will be suspended until the fine is paid.
- d) After 6 months, if the fine is not paid, membership will be revoked without reimbursement.

Other violations will be dealt with as follows:

- a) Verbal reminder
- b) Written notification
- c) Monetary fine determined by the Recreation Board. Proceeds of fine to be returned to the Recreation Club.

RENTAL and SCHEDULING:

Members and their guests may use the clubhouse anytime without making a reservation unless a private party or scheduled event/activity is scheduled or in progress.

Scheduled events/activities:

Club sponsored activities may invite and pay for outside instructors. There is no charge for clubhouse rental for these activities provided all attendees are members or their invited guests. No rental contract is required for these activities.

Paid Rentals – members or outside - private parties may invite any guests desired. These events require a rental contract.

Non-paid member activities may invite members and guests who are not eligible for membership. Guests who qualify for membership cannot be invited to non-paid events (see above). These events require a rental contract.
